SECRETARY BYSIEWICZ OFFICIALLY RECEIVES WRIT OF SPECIAL ELECTION FROM GOVERNOR RELL

SPECIAL ELECTION TO FILL SEAT VACATED BY SENATOR DeLUCA SET FOR TUESDAY JANUARY 15, 2008

Hartford: Secretary of the State Susan Bysiewicz has officially received and signed the writ of special election from Governor M. Jodi Rell to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of State Senator Louis DeLuca. In accordance with Connecticut General Statutes Section 9-215 the special election will be held 46 days after the issuance of the writ. Voters in the 32nd senate district will head to the polls to elect a new state senator on January 15th 2008.

“I have received and signed the writ of special election for the 32nd district from Governor Rell,” said Bysiewicz. “This January 15th voters in the 32nd district will have the opportunity to move forward and select new leadership to represent them in Hartford. As the state’s chief election official, I stand ready to work with constituents, potential candidates, and local election officials to ensure the special election to replace him runs smoothly.”

The 32nd district includes the towns of Bridgewater, Roxbury, Woodbury, Bethlehem, Watertown, Thomaston, Middlebury, Southbury, Oxford and Seymour.
